EMPTY BOWL SUPPER

Sunday, February 24, 2008
Westview Cafeteria, 4-7pm

At this special supper event, guests are served a delicious vegetable soup in handmade ceramic bowls in exchange for a donation to fight hunger. Guests keep the bowls as a reminder of the Empty Bowls Project. All proceeds benefit Second Harvest, a nationwide organization that is dedicated to fighting hunger.

The artfully created bowls provided for this event were produced right on campus by many members of the SSFS community including students (PK -12), their families, faculty, staff and board members.

Entertainment Provided by: SSFS Dancers & Faculty Jazz Ensemble

Suggested Donations: Individuals $ 12 Family Group: $ 9 per person

Please send in your reservation and check to the division office by February 15th
