a presentation by Aaron Meisner

Finance & Innovations

“Money management is one of the most intimate services that can be offered. This is a human endeavor, and mine is the best job I can imagine... Sharing wisdom and innovating thinking to benefit society is time well spent.”

- Aaron Meisner

Sandy Spring Friends School

SANDY SPRING FRIENDS SCHOOL

Aaron Meisner, SSFS '84 alum, officially began his wealth management career in 1992, but developed a passion and familiarity with the industry as a child in the 1970s, running order tickets and learning how to post trades after school at his father's brokerage office. Today, Aaron is the Senior Financial Advisor Vice President at Merrill Lynch Wealth Management in Baltimore.
