

2019 SSFS Lower School Summer Practice Apps & Online Resources for students entering Grade 3

While we hope that your child will spend the majority of the summer out in nature or participating in energetic social activities, a little exercise for the mind can be welcome. You may also want your child to spend some time practicing their basic skills so they don't become rusty over the summer break. To that end, we offer these optional fun and educational suggestions for apps and online resources. All of these sites and apps are recommended by Lower School teachers, so you can rest assured that your children's time online will be well spent.
