The Adventure Park at Sandy Spring Signs Multi-decade Lease Extension

Sandy Spring, MD: After 14 years of successful operation, The Adventure Park at Sandy Spring has signed a multi-decade contract extension with Sandy Spring Friends School, ensuring the country's largest ropes course & zipline park will remain in its current location for the foreseeable future.

Founded in 2010, The Adventure Park at Sandy Spring began as an innovative fundraising project for Sandy Spring Friends School and has grown into a nationally recognized location for outdoor recreation and Adventure.

The Adventure Park has been named the “Best Amusement Park” in the DMV by Washington Parent Magazine for 3 consecutive years in addition to being voted the #1 Adventure Park in the continental US by USA Today readers.

“Our unique partnership with Sandy Spring Friends School has allowed us to grow into an industry leader and I can’t imagine calling anywhere else home” said John Hines, Owner of The Adventure Park. “Knowing our future is secured allows us to continue to improve the park in the hopes of providing unforgettable experiences for years to come.

“We are excited to continue our partnership with John Hines and The Adventure Park at Sandy Spring,” said Dr. Sue Groesbeck, Interim Head of School at Sandy Spring Friend School. “Our mutual commitment to the growth of the Park will enhance both the School and the larger community which enjoys the Park.”

About The Adventure Park: Founded in 2010, The Adventure Park at Sandy Spring Friends School is the largest Aerial Ropes Course & Zipline park in the United States, receiving roughly 100k annual visitors. The Adventure Park prioritizes safety above all else, having been named the 4th “Association for Challenge Course Technology (ACCT)” Accredited park in the country in 2023. The Adventure Park at Sandy Spring remains the only park of its kind to accomplish this certification in Maryland, D.C., or Virginia.
